

RED LETTER CHALLENGE: "Being"

Hebrews 12:1-3

I. Intro: Visit with Grandpa

II. The importance of _____ with _____

- A. We don't have a _____ problem, we have a _____ problem

"It's easy to confuse a lot of _____ with a purposeful life. Do what _____; let the rest fall away." (Bob Goff)

"Be still, and know that I am God. I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth!" (Psalm 46:10 ESV)

- B. Being with Jesus shapes _____ we are; therefore _____ we do

Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles. And let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us, fixing our eyes on Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of faith. (Hebrews 12:1-2a NIV)

- C. Time spent with Jesus is a _____

"Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls." (Matthew 11:28-29 NIV)

- D. Challenge: Aim for Jesus and _____ with _____

Oh, how I love your instructions! I think about them all day long. How sweet your words taste to me; they are sweeter than honey. Your commandments give me understanding; no wonder I hate every false way of life. (Psalm 119:97, 103-104 NIV)

Welcome to Redeemer!

Thanks for worshiping with us! We want you to feel at home and encourage you to introduce yourself to one of our greeters or pastor. If you'd like more info about Redeemer, please fill out the Connect Card in the chair-back in front of you. We want to meet and welcome you personally. If you have questions concerning hearing assistance or directions to our nursery or classrooms, an usher will be happy to assist. Children's bulletins and "busy hands" bags are available at the Welcome Center just outside the sanctuary.

So we're going to come right out and say something that likely won't shock you: We're not perfect. We try to be real, transparent, and honest. But we even fail at that sometimes. You may feel ignored or unappreciated in some way this morning, but that certainly is not our intention. Please allow us to get to know you better – we all came to worship a Loving God.

But here's the thing: We don't come to church to meet perfect people. We come to meet a perfect God. He's inviting us to worship today. He is good and His love endures forever. And His is a love that was consummated on a cross and vindicated in an empty tomb. Jesus won the battle against sin, death and the devil. He freed us. Today we celebrate that victory and freedom together as imperfect people, longing for more of Him.

Pastor Nathan

Welcome to the Lord's Table

If you're a guest, we are glad you are here! Prior to taking Communion, we encourage you to speak with pastor or an elder. We believe the sacrament of Communion is a gift of Christ to His Church. Scripture encourages, all who receive this gift must first examine themselves concerning matters of biblical faith and godly living: "Examine yourselves, and only then eat of the bread and drink of the cup." (1 Cor 11:28). Therefore, prior to celebrating Communion, we ask that you prayerfully consider the following:

- * Do I believe I'm a sinner without hope of eternal life except for God's mercy offered through the death & resurrection of Jesus Christ?
- * Do I believe Jesus is present with His Body & His Blood in, with, and under the bread and wine?
- * Do I believe Jesus is God's Son & my Savior?
- * Do I desire, by the power of the Holy Spirit and the instruction of God's Word, to live a life pleasing to Him?
- * Do I repent of my sins in what I say, think, & do?

We believe your "Yes!" to these questions affirms a common faith with confirmed Lutheran Christians and is your invitation to our Lord's Table. Non-Communing children and adults are encouraged to come up for a personal blessing. For those who prefer, white grape juice is available at the center of each Communion tray.
