

MEMEOLOGY: “It Doesn’t Matter What You Do”

2 Timothy 4:1-8

I. Intro: The crazy things we do...

II. Paul’s last _____ and _____

A time is coming when people will no longer listen to sound and wholesome teaching. They will follow their own desires and will look for teachers who will tell them whatever their itching ears want to hear. (2 Timothy 4:3 NLT)

A. Tickle my _____, but don’t scratch my _____

Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, for many false prophets have gone out into the world. (1 John 4:1 ESV)

B. What you do _____

Do not be deceived: God is not mocked, for whatever one sows, that will he also reap. For the one who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption, but the one who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life. (Galatians 6:7-8 ESV)

C. Explore the _____ behind the _____

So whether you eat or drink or whatever you do, do it all for the glory of God. (1 Corinthians 10:31 NIV)

III. The good news: Our _____ becomes Jesus’ _____!

But thanks be to God! He gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, my dear brothers and sisters, stand firm. Let nothing move you. Always give yourselves fully to the work of the Lord, because you know that your labor in the Lord is not in vain. (1 Corinthians 15:57-58 NIV)

Welcome to Redeemer!

Thanks for worshiping with us! We want you to feel at home and encourage you to introduce yourself to one of our greeters or pastor. If you’d like more info about Redeemer, please fill out the Connect Card in the chair-back in front of you. We want to meet and welcome you personally. If you have questions concerning hearing assistance or directions to our nursery or classrooms, an usher will be happy to assist. Children’s bulletins and “busy hands” bags are available at the Welcome Center just outside the sanctuary.

So we’re going to come right out and say something that likely won’t shock you: We’re not perfect. We try to be real, transparent, and honest. But we even fail at that sometimes. You may feel ignored or unappreciated in some way this morning, but that certainly is not our intention. Please allow us to get to know you better – we all came to worship a Loving God.

But here’s the thing: We don’t come to church to meet perfect people. We come to meet a perfect God. He’s inviting us to worship today. He is good and His love endures forever. And His is a love that was consummated on a cross and vindicated in an empty tomb. Jesus won the battle against sin, death and the devil. He freed us. Today we celebrate that victory and freedom together as imperfect people, longing for more of Him.

Welcome to the Lord’s Table

If you’re a guest, we are glad you are here! Prior to taking Communion, we encourage you to speak with pastor or an elder. We believe the sacrament of Communion is a gift of Christ to His Church. Scripture encourages, all who receive this gift must first examine themselves concerning matters of biblical faith and godly living: “Examine yourselves, and only then eat of the bread and drink of the cup.” (1 Cor 11:28). Therefore, prior to celebrating Communion, we ask that you prayerfully consider the following:

- * Do I believe I’m a sinner without hope of eternal life except for God’s mercy offered through the death & resurrection of Jesus Christ?
- * Do I believe Jesus is present with His Body & His Blood in, with, and under the bread and wine?
- * Do I believe Jesus is God’s Son & my Savior?
- * Do I desire, by the power of the Holy Spirit and the instruction of God’s Word, to live a life pleasing to Him?
- * Do I repent of my sins in what I say, think, & do?

We believe your “Yes!” to these questions affirms a common faith with confirmed Lutheran Christians and is your invitation to our Lord’s Table. Non-Communing children and adults are encouraged to come up for a personal blessing. For those who prefer, white grape juice is available at the center of each Communion tray.
