

LIFE TOGETHER: "I'm Being True to Myself"

1 Peter 1:22-25

I. Intro: Who am I?

II. Peter argues your identity distinguishes _____ you _____

A. We're losing sight of who we are, we've _____ our true

B. Who we are is found in _____ place: _____

For you have been born again, not of perishable seed, but of imperishable, through the living and enduring word of God. (1 Peter 1:23 NIV)

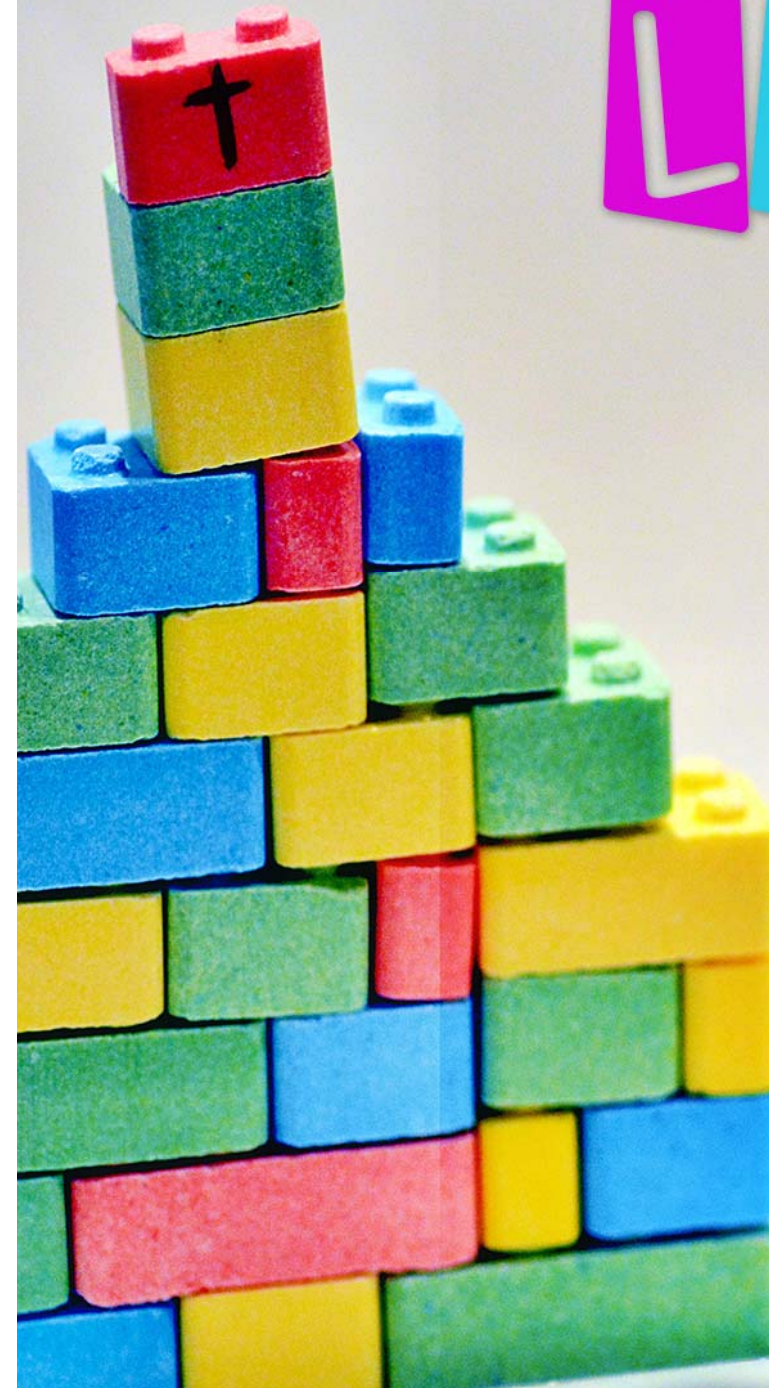

A voice says, "Cry out." And I said, "What shall I cry?" "All people are like grass, and all their faithfulness is like the flowers of the field. The grass withers and the flowers fall, but the word of our God endures forever." (Isaiah 40:6, 8 NIV)

C. God's enduring Word grows you into the identity given to you _____ your _____

I have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me. (Galatians 2:20 ESV)
